ACE Mentoring Program	The ACE Mentor Program of America, Inc. (ACE) helps mentor high school students and inspires them to pursue careers in design and construction. Through after school group mentoring and a robust college scholarship program, ACE DC is building the next generation of architects, project managers, contractors and engineers. It's now the construction industry's fastest-growing high school mentoring program, reaching over 8,000 students annually.	https://www.acewashingtondc.org	washingtondc@acementor.org
Asian American LEAD	Asian American LEAD provides enrichment and development programs to Asian American youth through one-on-one mentoring, academic support services, life-skills development and assistance to parents with school-related issues affecting their children. It provides a nurturing environment and culturally-sensitive guidance so each child will be a contributing member of the community.	www.aalead.org	(202) 884-0322
Coalition for Community Schools	The Coalition for Community Schools, housed at the Institute for Educational Leadership, is an alliance of national, state and local organizations in education K-16, youth development, community planning and development, family support, health and human services, government and philanthropy as well as national, state and local community school networks. Community schools are both a place and a set of partnerships between the school and other community resources.	http://www.communityschools.org/	(202) 822-8405
College & Career Connections (CCC)	CCC provides eighth and ninth grade students with college and career awareness and planning information. The program reinforces the importance of academic preparation and provides a compelling rationale for taking school seriously. Its workshop series helps students assess their strengths and interests and explore how those interests intersect with various careers.	https://collegecareer.co/	(985) 778-9848
DC Collaborative	The DC Collaborative, in partnership with our members, advances access to learning opportunities in the arts and humanities for all DC public and public charter school students. The DC Collaborative envisions that DC public schools and public charter schools are widely recognized for the comprehensive education—integrating the arts and humanities with core subjects—which they provide to all students.	http://www.dccollaborative.org/	(202) 470-6467

Field of Dream	FOD operates a after-school program within DC Public Schools. This program allows participants to practice their baseball in the off season, while getting homework assistance and developing their character at the same time. In the spring, the elementary schools play baseball games against one another in our own Fields of Dreams league. We complete the season with a Ward Series Championship.	https://www.fieldsofdreamsdc.org/	(202) 331-1550
FihankraAkom aNtoaso (FAN)	FAN's mission is to cultivate a focus on youth well-being and positive development in an environment infused with safety, security, and love. We provide youth in foster care opportunities to nurture their interests and talents, acquire new skills, and gain a sense of personal and group recognition in an atmosphere of hope.	http://www.fan-dc.org/	(202) 380-9390
For the Love of Children	FLOC has two primary programs serving DCPS youth. The Neighborhood Tutoring Program one-on-one tutoring program helps students in grades 1-12 achieve grade-level competency in reading and math by ensuring they achieve 100% mastery in one skill before moving on to the next. The FLOC City Leaders Program helps students in grades 8-12 and beyond to gain the skills they need to graduate from high school, pursue higher education, and achieve college and career success.	http://www.floc.org/	(202) 462-8686
Higher Achievement	Higher Achievement closes the opportunity gap during the pivotal middle school years. By leveraging the power of communities, Higher Achievement's proven model provides a rigorous year-round learning environment, caring role models, and a culture of high expectations, resulting in college-bound scholars with the character, confidence, and skills to succeed.	http://higherachievement.org/	202.544.3633
Kid Power	Kid Power inspires youth leadership by promoting academic advancement, physical and emotional wellness, and positive civic engagement in underserved communities throughout the District of Columbia. Currently, Kid Power's after-school and summer programs serve 425 elementary and middle school students at Title 1 DC Public Schools. Kid Power serves an additional 1,200 students at 5 DCPS schools with monthly in-school VeggieTime science lessons. Our programs include: The Academic Power Hour, The VeggieTime Project, The Citizenship Project, and The Summer Leadership Academy.	http://www.kidpowerdc.org/	(202) 484-1404
Literacy Lab	The Literacy Lab provides students—in communities experiencing racial and/or economic inequities—with evidence-based, culturally responsive literacy instruction as preparation for academic, professional, and personal success. The Literacy Lab serves children from age three through grade three. We partner with school districts to help close the literacy gap largely by embedding full-time, rigorously-trained tutors in early childhood centers and elementary schools.	http://theliteracylab.org	(202) 567-7082

Opportunities Industrialization Center, Inc.	OIC/DC's mission is to provide a quality integrated education and training program (IE&T) for adults and youth, in an effort to assist them in taking control of their lives and building educational skills and work-related competencies, as they enter the mainstream workforce on the road to self-sufficiency. OIC/DC offers integrated education and training services to District residents with emphasis on preparing them for careers in two demand industries: Business Administration/Information Technology and Healthcare.	http://www.oicdc.org/	(202) 839-3076
Parent Toolkit	Parent Toolkit is a one-stop resource developed with parents in mind. It's produced by NBC News Learn and supported by Pearson and includes information about almost every aspect of your child's development, because they're all connected. Healthy, successful children can excel in many areas – in the classroom, on the court, and in their relationships with peers and adults. Our advice also covers important topics for navigating life after high school.	http://www.parenttoolkit.com/
Resources to Inspire Students and Educators	RISE's mission is to level the educational playing field in Washington, D.C. RISE provides the same quality educational resources for low-income students, such as tutoring and college mentoring, that are available to students of means – free of charge. RISE believes that the greater the need of the student, the greater the expertise of the instruction and mentoring should be.	https://risedc.org/	(202)417-1211
Teaching for Change	Teaching for Change provides teachers and parents with the tools to create schools where students learn to read, write and change the world. By drawing direct connections to real world issues, Teaching for Change encourages teachers and students to question and re-think the world inside and outside their classrooms, build a more equitable, multicultural society, and become active global citizens. Our professional development, publications, and parent organizing programs serve teachers, other school staff, and parents.	http://www.teachingforchange.org/	(202) 588-7204
